Rent Control Essential

No one will give much credence to the rumor afloat in the East that rent control will shortly be lifted by the federal government.

There will come a day, of course, when all controls must come to an end. But the economic situation is so exceedingly delicate today and the picture of what happened in the United States when Oliver effected such a sudden and complete removal of unregulated prices that no official in his right senses is likely to advocate an end to Canadian controls at present.

And certainly the control of rentals is among the most vital of all price regulations.

The housing situation in Canada is surely bad enough as it is. The removal of restrictions on rents would plunge hundreds of thousands of Canadians into either homelessness or household bankruptcy.

For there is a definite limit upon the figures the average salaried man can pay for rent. If he goes beyond that limit, if his income, he is faced with the disruption of his household economy in which other essentials must run short. It has been pointed out many times that few Canadians today are keeping within the allotted apportionment for shelter.

The removal of rent controls would bring chaos and hardship and even privation to thousands of Canadian families.
Surely no such stupid and vicious step can be held in the mind of Ottawa.

Twelve Man Juries

Saskatchewan, it has been announced, will revert to the twelve-man jury system on September 1. This leaves Alberta the only province which still uses a six-man jury.

It is time that Alberta gave consideration to making a similar change in order that the systems throughout Canada should conform — not for conformity's sake but because provincial experience seems to establish the twelve-man panel as the most suitable and effective institution.

It is easy to understand the difficulty attendant upon securing a jury of twelve persons for each case when the population of small areas is not large enough to provide a sufficient number of persons who are being exceedingly busy with their own affairs. But that time is now past. There is no numerical obstacle to the larger panel now.

On the other hand, the six-man jury presents very definite handicaps to the impartial trial of a civil or criminal case. The individuals in a group of six persons will not accept the same personal responsibility for the verdict as a group of twelve persons. Or, to put it in other words, responsibility rests much more heavily and perhaps painfully upon one person out of six than it does upon one person out of twelve.

Alberta should at least reconsider the question and give new consideration to her jury system.

The Women's Services

The Wrens, as was announced the other day, have been finally disbanded. The Canadian Women's Army Corps will be do-mobilized by the end of this month. The Women's Division of the Royal Canadian Air Force will carry on for a few months to assist the interim force and then also will be folded up.

Thus comes to an end a chapter in Canadian history which has had and will have far-reaching consequences in the homes of many thousand Canadian families.
It has been a bright and exhilarating chapter, Canadian womanhood has acquired new lustre in the zeal and devotion to duty with which these thousands of women discharged their responsibilities. They gave good faithful service in the period of a national crisis. And their usefulness can never be quite measured in terms of comparison or reduced to statistical words.

For the three women's services accomplished more than a mere mechanical performance of difficult tasks. They were an inspiration to every Canadian. They were a constant reminder of the need for an unflinching war effort. They typified the very spirit of sacrifice among our people.

It has been a bright and exhilarating chapter in Canadian history. And yet it has been a touching chapter, too. No one can contemplate, unmoved, the courage of many of these young girls who left sheltered homes for the first time in their lives upon the uncertainties and hazards of an entirely new and frightening life.

War brings out much that is evil in human nature. But it also brings out much that is fine and sweet and good. The truth of the latter reflection is attested in no more splendid way than in the spirit of the women of the three services.

They go out, now, to their homes and their families and to the new and unfamiliar duties of civil life. They go out enriched and broadened. They go with God.

The Dotted Line

Something was said in these columns recently about the readiness of many people to join any organization which solicits their membership or sign anything presented to them. Nor is it altogether unknown that the same signatures turn up on petitions and counter-petitions for and against almost anything under the sun.

If any reader thought I exaggerated that phase of human frailty let him now consider the case of Sam Carr whose association with "headquarters" at Moscow has been brought to light by recent events at Ottawa.

Although the circumstances did not hit the big headlines in 1931, Carr lost his citizenship that year because of his identity with the outlawed Communist party. He made another application in 1936 and was granted his citizenship when the Secretary of State misgave, it seems, were more or less disposed by the names of sponsors appearing on his application.

With astonishing frankness one of these, Rev. Dr. John Coburn, now says: "I don't recall a thing about it. If a bunch of prominent people were doing the same thing I suppose I would join with the rest of them."

And who are the "bunch of prominent people"? One is Hon. E.J. McMurtry, sometime solicitor-general for Canada, another, George Burt, CIO organizer of Windsor, Ont.; another J.T. (now Mr. Justice) Thor-son — then a member of parliament; another Mr. Deprise Nielson, also an ex-MP, and yet another Dr. George Fidgeon, a former moderator of the United Church.

Apparently it is only necessary to find oneself in sufficiently imposing company to come to the conclusion that whatever it is must be all right.

Let There Be Noise

In defence of the juke box a correspondent in The Toronto Star reminds us that music was enlisted into many war plants to stimulate the workers' production and elevate their morale. An excellent idea while it lasted, and if it can really be depended upon we shall be all in favor of installing juke boxes from the forests to the lumber mills, from the mines to the steel works, from the quarries to the cement plants, from the textile mills to the machine shops. In short, everywhere under-production seems to prevail at the present moment.

But one does not repair to munitions plants for peace or to soothe a nervous headache. A little music? Yes. The correspondent speaks also of this, but where is the juke box that purveys either music or a little?

As to those "several fellows" he says he knows who refuse to stay in a chop house where there is no juke box, we believe we can match them with at least an equal number who will turn on their heels when they see there is one.

It is the fact that the times we live in demand noise? Any kind of noise. Anything but silence. Sound and sound making appliances of one kind and another have so multiplied that quiet is more distressing for many, perhaps the majority, than the unbroken silence of the wilderness would have been a generation ago.

Consider the radio. It is a boon to humanity, but its sound has become a habit in so many households that it must needs "play" from the rising up of the sun until long after the going down of the same. Not that anyone listens to it — if you grant a distinction between listening and hearing — so long as there is the silence. And some must take this implement of the noise demon with them at week-ends to shatter even the tranquility of stream and forest — the very blessing they professed to have gone seeking.

Looking Backward

From The Bulletin Files

1886: 60 Years Ago
P. C. C. Dumais has finished surveying on the east side of Beaver Lake.

Twelve of the Davis arrived at Peace River from British Columbia with large trading outfit. He will winter near Chipewyan.

Rev. William McKay Omand was ordained at the Brandon presbytery.

Inspector Chalmers will be in command of the new police post to be set up at the Red Deer River.
Chief Factor Clarke arrived from Fort Saskatchewan.

1896: 50 Years Ago
Toronto: The Privy Council has decided that it is wonted the provincial legislature to enact a local option law.

London: The Soho Foundry, Birmingham, famous engine, has been sold and will be dismantled.

1906: 40 Years Ago
Copenhagen: Finland is in a state of siege. Russian troops are pouring into the country from St.
Petersburg.

Chicago: Several deaths and a case of insanity have resulted from the failure of the Milwaukee Stevens Bank which managed to fail.

Representative of the Canadian Society of Equity Alberta department, and the Alberta Farmers' Association, met in Edmonton to discuss amalgamation.

1916: 30 Years Ago
London: Sir Sam Hughes, minister of defence, says conscription is not necessary in Canada.

Five Edmonton people are missing as a result of the overturning of a motor bus on Lac la Biche.
London: An Admiralty official says, "Every time a torpedo comes over here killing women and children, we are reminded of the need for an unflinching war effort. They typified the very spirit of sacrifice among our people."

It has been a bright and exhilarating
chapter in Canadian history. And yet it has been a touching chapter, too. No one can

LIFE'S DARKEST MOMENT

Reparations for Jews

By DOROTHY THOMPSON
Exclusive to The Edmonton Bulletin
The Palestine question is exaggerated by the desperate situation of the remnant of European Jewry.
On no other matter have the Great Powers been so delinquent. Hitler's criminal persecutions first broke the Jewish community, the wealthiest, the most established, and most assimilated of European Jewish communities.
The Jews were taken to Germany.
Thereafter his persecuting armies marched to catch up with them in every European country to which they fled, until they were caught in the trap between two fronts, there to be exterminated.

The hunting down of this community lent powerful interest to the war.
The conscience was shocked;
the heart revolted. It would, it seems,
have seemed the most sincere and just of peace aims to have put the rehabilitation of what was left of European Jewry at the very first number on the agenda. That more than a year after the defeat of the greatest enemy of the Jews they are still herded into camps, depending on a relief which offers no reformation is a charge against the Allied powers that cannot be shrugged off.

It is not surprising, therefore,
that the Jewish presence in the critically explosive area of the Middle East, what, then, is the alternative? Sympathizers, or non-sympatizers with the idea of a Jewish national state will have to answer the question.

If anything would soften the opposition of the Arabs to broadening the immigration to 100,000, it would be a more generous attitude from the rest of the world. The British Commonwealth and the United States could negotiate with better grace if the two would offer to take as many.

Experts are warning both of demographical decline. Canada is subject to the same. The United States will probably be doing the same. Yet hundreds of thousands of children are dying of hunger in Europe, among them Jewish children, for whom wonder, heaven would provide, were there no lead Jewish children who could have been saved.
If the U.S. Senate had listened to the plea to admit 300,000 before the war, when their doom seemed sealed.

Our wartime denunciations take on in retrospect a sickening hypocrasy. There are crimes of omission, horrible in their results as crimes of commission. Of crimes of omission, every great power is guilty.

THE U.S.S.R. boasts of liberal racial laws, and a shortage of labor, but what has it done for Hitler's first victims? It is taking from the defeated countries billions in reparations. But where are reparations for the Jews, for whom the war lasted 12 years?

It would seem fitting that the losses of the Jews should be assessed and made a reparations charge.
The United States, Britain, France and fund created, the money to be used for the solid reconstruction of the Jewish people.

It is not enough that the Jews be seen just that every German enterprise should lay a title of its income to the Jews. The Jews have lost the lot of the Jews the whole German people shared, not averse to being receivers of stolen goods from murdered or exiled men.

Poland has taken a huge area of German territory and driven out the inhabitants. What has she done to re-fill it with her own devastated population. The great estates there have been sold to the kind of cooperative, rationalized agricultural settlements the Jews have created in Palestine.

Germany has created such developments in Eastern Europe, instead of the present reactionary and insular policy of "German reform," would contribute to solving Europe's disastrous food problem.

The Jewish people, expelled of Germans, is also largely empty of Czechs for they have insufficient land to support them. With a fund of restored Jewish money the destitute in camps could be rehabilitated or resettled there.
Did Czechs suffer under the Germans as Jews did? Should not those who suffered share the gains of victory with those who suffered more?

The sessions of the peace conference drone on while not the simplest human problem is tackled with imagination, energy or faith.
Our worst inadequacy is our failure towards the Jews.

The only real assets in the world are the raw substances of nature and the glad and willing hands of men busy building communities and homes. The desperate and hopeless are the raw material of anarchy and violence—the human atomic bombs that can finally shake civilization entirely away from its already badly loosened roots.

The Bulletin's SPORT SHOW by Hal Dean

SPORTS EDITOR

SPEED to Spare Handicap, feature race of the Saturday afternoon card at the Exhibition track is to be an annual affair and thanks to the interest and generosity of Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt, the event has taken on special significance and now seems destined to become Edmonton's premier racing attraction.

The horse whose racing days ended on the track here at Edmonton and after which the handicap has been named, had performed in very select company. He had been campaigning for 10 years when he broke down during a race on the final day (Saturday, July 21) of the 1945 Exhibition meeting, being later destroyed.

WINNINGS TOTAL $90,000

OUT OF 181 starts he had 45 firsts, his winnings totalling roughly $90,000. The Maryland Furlong, San Felipe (now worth some $25,000), the later-Burrough and New Rochelle Handicaps were some of his conquests. He won one race out of three starts on the prairies last year.

In the course of events which followed, Speed to Spare was bought by the Circle M Ranch, San Antonio, Texas. Ultimately he was acquired for a very modest sum at Blue Bonnets, Montreal, by Morris brothers of Winnipeg, Jubilaro, entered by E.F. Morris in the first race here yesterday, was purchased at the same time.

Speed to Spare and his accomplishments were lively topics of conversation during the 1945 Exhibition meeting and it therefore was not surprising the unfortunate accident to the son of Balke eventually led to further action.

GETS VANDERBILT BLANKET

DUE TO THE continued interest of several race enthusiasts, a letter ultimately was dispatched to Alfred Gwynne Vanderbilt himself and that gentleman very promptly replied, giving the history of the horse.

"I thank you very much for your interest and I would be glad to participate," the letter said in part.

"He was a good, game little horse and I feel very pleased that you are naming a race for him," was the final paragraph.

Enclosed in the letter was a check, and as a result the winner of the Speed to Spare Handicap next Saturday afternoon will receive a cooler made in Vanderbilt racing colors, erieve with white trimmings, in addition to the major share of the $10,000 prize money.

Sign Agreement

BUFFALO, N.Y., Aug. 12 (AP)—

Manager Art Chapman of Buffalo Bisons, American hockey league champions, announced tonight the Bisons have signed a working agreement with Montreal Canadiens.

The agreement gives Buffalo first choice of all players over Montreal's player—limit, Chapman said. In turn, the Canadiens get first choice of any Buffalo player eligible for the national league club.

PITCHER OPTIONED

BOSTON, Aug. 12 (AP)—

Boston Braves last night announced Al Trichel of Los Angeles, a six-foot-five, 190-pound, right-hand pitcher, had been optioned to the San Diego Pacific coast league.

Soccer Tonight At Clarke Stadium

Play in the Dragons cup soccer competition resumes tonight at Clarke Stadium, commencing at 6:30 o'clock, when Army and Navy Vets meet Maple Leaf juniors in the second game of this competition.

In the opening game of the Dragons, South Side Legion swamped Oliver St. Pats by a score of 9-0 on Saturday. Jack Smith was the star of the one-sided affair, booting in five goals. Dunc Campbell with two and George Dempster accounted for three other tallies and Sam Davidson deflected the ball into his own goal for the ninth South Side counter.

The game being billed as the feature attraction of this competition will come up on Saturday when the Legion clubs clash.

Sports . . . Roundup

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

NEW YORK, Aug. 12 (AP)—

From here on in, baseball attendance for the other tallies and Sam Davidson deflected the ball into his own goal for the ninth South Side counter.

The American League pennant is just about decided and only two clubs are in the National League race, and in an ordinary season the crowds would begin falling off in other cities.

but with MacPhail and company in charge at Yankee Stadium, Bill Veeck at Cleveland, and three "steam shovels" reviving the Braves, Bob Carpenter just getting some action with the Phillies and Frank McKinney, Bing Crosby, and others taking over the Pirates, almost anything can—and probably will—happen.

TIME TO QUIT
Roy Funkhouser, lately a Kitty League umpire, was driving from Hopkinsville, Ky., to Mayfield to work a game recently when his car struck a Jersey cow on the road.

The cow was killed, Roy's car was wrecked and the ump, who suffered only an injured knee, decided to resign. . . . "If I can't see a cow on the highway, how am I going to see a little baseball whizzing across the plate?" Funkhouser asked.

SPORTS BEFORE YOUR EYES
Flight fans will be soaked $1.50 on weekdays and $2 on weekends to see Tami Muariello train for Joe Louis. . . . at least they'll have a chance to see Tami on his feet.

BULLETIN Wynn Cops Batting Crown

Suggest One Body Amateur Hockey

representatives of hockey governing bodies in the United States, Canada, Great Britain, France and Sweden met Monday and formulated a plan to bring all amateur hockey under a single governing body not concerned with any other sport.

Under the plan, the International Hockey Association will suggest to the Ligue Internationale de Hockey Sur Glace, which meets at Zurich, Switzerland, Sept. 1, that the two world organizations be merged into a single new group which would be concerned only with hockey.

"IN THESE SUGGESTIONS," the position of the Canadian Hockey Association as the producer of hockey players is being carefully protected," said Dr. W.G. Hardy of Edmonton, president of the International Hockey Association.

A plan also was proposed for a world championship tournament to be held alternately in Europe and North America.

When the world meet is held in North America, the European championships would be decided in Europe and only the first and second teams would cross to play in North America.

WHEN THE WORLD championships are held in Europe, both the ICAHA and the Amateur Hockey Association of the United States would designate teams to participate across the Atlantic.

Under the merger plan, Olympic championships would be played under Canadian amateur rules, which follow those of the National Hockey League.

Junior Soccer

Edmonton soccer officials stated Monday night that no arrangements had been made for a junior team from this city to play in Calgary on Saturday. The likely date for the game is August 24.

Baseball Tonight

Weather permitting, the baseball game between Ligon colored team from Los Angeles and Edmonton all-stars will be played at Renfrew Park tonight commencing at 6:15.

GAINS DECISION

Fastball Teams Being Eliminated

With the western Canada senior Clarke Stadium coming up soon, the number of teams still eligible for the fastballs will be reduced to a few. The teams will be eliminated with the playing of two games.

The Vancouver Nat House and Pacific are tied at one game each in one semi-final and Heliand, last year's champions, and Ballard are deadlocked at one win each in the other series.

In Alberta, there are only two teams still in the hunt and by next province will be declared. At present, the club to represent this province, Edmonton Mortons lead the best of three final with Medicine Hat one game to nothing.

In Saskatchewan there are still four clubs in the running, two from Regina and another pair from Saskatoon. In Saskatoon recently Aces eliminated Fats in the third game of a series and flambled, knocked out Spartans two straight.

Saskatoon Aces and Ramblers now meet in a best of three final with the winner to clash with the Regina champs, either Caps or Vics in the Saskatchewan final.

The playoffs in Winnipeg are now in the final stage following the Dan Davidsons win over St. Vitals in a two out of three series before 13,000 people at Winnipeg's Osbourne stadium.

INDIANA CHEMICAL PLANT WRECKED BY AMMONIA GAS EXPLOSION

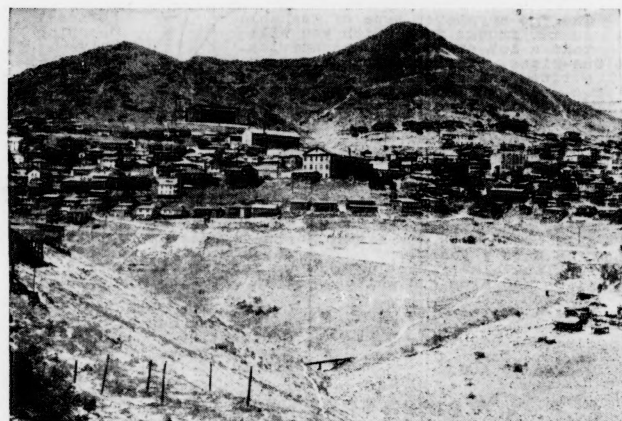

LONG LINES OF JEWS FLEE POLAND FOR BRITISH AND AMERICAN ZONES

ON HER IT LOOKS GOOD
—Romantic CBS star Julie Stevens wears an adaptation of the native Hindu Sari headress. Of sheer black nylon, the drape is bordered with ermine tail and attached to a headfitting clip.

INDIANA BLAST—This is the wreckage left as result of an early morning explosion and fire at the Commercial Solvents Corp., in Terre Haute. A nearby penicillin plant was undamaged. An exploding ammonia tank is believed to have been the cause. Because of the early hour only six persons were injured.

GHOST TOWN?—Once claimed to be the "most unique town in America" this village at Jerome, Arizona, is threatened with extinction. The Phelps Dodge Corporation has announced that it is abandoning the ore vein area which has been drained dry.

"LOOK AT THAT SKY-LINE," say Alfred Kurz, eight, and his sister, Doriana, 10, as they arrive in New York. Orphaned when Nazis killed their parents, they will live with an uncle in this country.

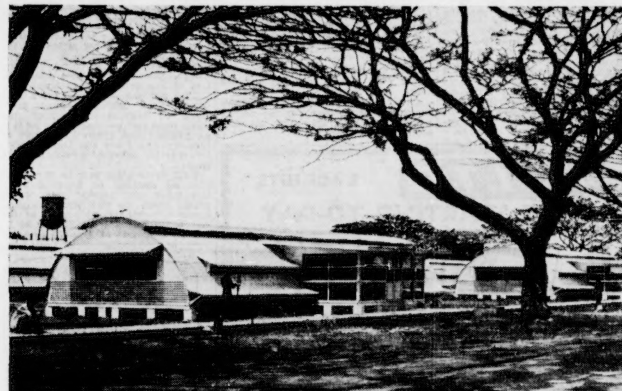

TELEVISION DREAM—A lovely vision under any circumstances, blonde New York singer Gina Ganas will be quite acceptable as she comes over the ether via television.

BIG MEDICINE—High on a mountain in Gallup, N. M., these Indians of the Pueblo and Plains tribes prepare for their 25th annual Inter-Tribal Ceremonial. They are doing the Taos Horse Tail Dance which is said to insure good crops and horse-trading success.

LONG, LONG TRAIL—Fleeing the uncertainty of Poland this long column of Jews arrives, by foot, at Bratislava. Carrying their possessions with them, they are headed for British and American zones in Austria and Germany.

FACE LIFTED—Yes, these are quonset huts. Remodeled by the Navy at Sangley Point Naval Air Base, Philippine Islands, for enlisted men's families, they are completely equipped with comfortable furniture and all modern conveniences.

HOUSES FOR VETS—The Dibble General Hospital, above, at Menlo Park, Calif., has been turned over to Stanford University. The infirmary is to be converted into 300 apartments to house married veteran students and dormitories for 2400 single veterans.

FROM BOMBER TO CIVILIAN TRANSPORT. Capt. Bob Lewis, of Richfield Park, N. J., was the co-pilot of the B-29, Enola Gay, which dropped the atomic bomb on Hiroshima. He is celebrating first anniversary of famous flight with his first run as co-pilot on an American Overseas Airlines flight.

OPERA TO MOVIES—Vivacious Paula Drew suns herself at Santa Monica, Calif. In nearby Hollywood she makes her debut for Universal Studio in "The Vigilantes Return." She was discovered while with Detroit Civic Opera.

ONE YEAR AFTER THE FLYING BOMB Londoners utilize this static water tank. Used during the war for fire fighting, it has been converted into an open air swimming pool. Swimmers here are cooling off during their lunch hour.

Kiwanians' Apple Day September 28

Bringing their annual apple campaign to a close, Edmonton Kiwanians club members will hold their "apple day" on Saturday, Sept. 28. It was announced by the club today.

PROCEEDS OF ALL sales go toward the maintenance of the Kiwanis Children's Home, 10456 Jasper Ave., where each year unfortunate children are given the advantage of a happy home life that would otherwise be denied them.

The campaign has been in progress now for some time, and already many orders for apples have been taken for October delivery.

Club officials expect that their quota of apples will be greater this year, and hope to top last year's record which was an all-time high.

One hundred and sixty club members have constituted themselves salesmen to assure the campaign a success. They are divided "The trim grey uniform of the Canadian Red Cross Corps will be as familiar a sight in the days of peace as the blue of the army as they have been during the war years," Miss Gwen Rhys, commandant of the Edmonton corps, stated in announcing that the local detachment is recruiting for members.

"THROUGH WAR INTO PEACE" is the campaign slogan. At least 20 additional members are required immediately to carry out the many activities that the Red Cross Corps is trained to do. At present duties include VAD work, visiting military hospitals, meeting trains, escorting war wives and their children from Winnipeg to Edmonton and running projection machines in the hospitals. Handcraft classes are being started shortly to train workers for the military hospitals.

WHILE the greatest need at present is for women who can give daytime help, a few evening workers are required. The work is voluntary and all recruits must pay for their own uniforms.

If those interested can spare some time for this work, telephone the local Red Cross office at 26402 or call at 606 Taylor building for further information. There is a definite opportunity for service for women between the ages of 18 and 45 and who are in good health.

Officers of the local corps include: Mrs. W. McBlain, adjutant; Mrs. Frank Pepper and Mrs. Harold Merrick, lieutenants.

into 13 teams, each with a captain.

ON SATURDAY, Sept. 28, the members will dress in costume, as has been their custom for many years, and will sell apples in downtown Edmonton.

R.M. "Dinky" Moore is president of the club this year and Sidney Easton is chairman of the apple campaign. Roy Henry is chairman of the box sales and L.G. Pagley, of the publicity committee.

VISITING FORMER HOME: Mrs. F.E.B. McCrea and her daughter, Miss Marian McCrea, of Vancouver, who resided in Edmonton for 12 years, are visiting the city on their way to study in London, Eng. The former will study voice and Miss McCrea will further her studies in pottery and fabrics.

Artists Visit Former Home

Two former Edmontonians, well-known in musical circles are in the city Tuesday on their way to England. Mrs. F.E.B. McCrea and her daughter, Miss Marian McCrea of Vancouver are guests at the Corona hotel.

Mrs. McCrea will be remembered for her fine contralto voice and was heard frequently as soloist with choirs in concerts and over radio stations.

During her 12 years residence here she was soloist with choirs at St. James' Cathedral, Christ Church and Holy Trinity Church. She was also soloist with the Edmonton Symphony Orchestra.

Mrs. McCrea conducts the Kildare Ladies' choir in Vancouver and her daughter is a member of this group. She is also provincial secretary of the British Columbia Music Teachers Association.

MISS MCCREA is going to England to continue her studies in pottery and fabrics. She was born in Edmonton and at the age of 10 years played the piano over CICA and was a talented singer. It was thought that she might be a child prodigy of the piano but at 14 years she turned to the study of the piano.

Elsie Carlson Is Married

Rich Valley, Aug. 12—Summer flowers formed the setting in the home of Mr. and Mrs. G. Carlson, August 12 at 4:30 p.m. for the wedding of their daughter, Miss Elsie Carlson, and Sam F. Wormington, son of Mrs. S. Wormington of Kimberley, B.C. The Rev. M. H. Edwards officiated.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a tailored suit of midnight blue with white accessories and a shoulder corsage of sweet-heart roses.

Sister of the bride, Miss Margith Carlson, wore a brown tailored suit with a corsage of roses.

After the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mother of the bride, chose for her daughter's wedding, a blue afternoon frock.

Sweetpeas decorated the bride's table, which was centered with a three-tier wedding cake.

The couple is spending a honeymoon at the Pacific coast and points in Western United States and will later reside at Kimberley, B.C.

Creasy-Almost Vows Pledged

HUGHENDEN, Aug. 13—An archway, decorated with red and white gladioli, formed the setting in the United church, Aug. 13 at 4 p.m. when Miss Esther Creasy, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ross Almost of Clear, became the bride of Ernest Martin Creasy, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Creasy of Hardisty. The Rev. A. E. Hardy officiated. Officiated played the wedding music and Mrs. Murry Treffrey of Wainwright sang. Always, during the signing of the register.

GIVEN IN marriage by her brother, Hardy, the bride wore a floor-length gown of white satin and net with broad bodice and full over-skirt of net. The fitted sleeves were also of net. Her full-length veil was held in place by a coronet of white flowers and a spray of a bouquet of sweetheart roses and maidenhair fern. Her only jewelry was a pearl necklace.

Mrs. Sigurd Peterson, sister of the bride was matron-of-honor. She wore a gown of pink crepe with matching chapel veil and carried a bouquet of deep red roses.

Miss Phyllis Creasy, sister of the bridegroom, was bridesmaid. She was groomed in shell pink sheer with embroidered sleeves and bodice and wore a matching chapel veil. Her flowers were red roses.

Two nieces of the bride, the Misses Anne and Olive Almost, were flower girls. They wore white dresses with white bows. They were groomed alike in white orandy with pink sashes and tiny flowered caps. They carried baskets of pink roses.

Wallace Almost, brother of the bride, was best man and ushered the guests to their seats. He wore a tuxedo and carried a sword.

AFTER THE ceremony, a reception to 90 guests was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mother of the bride, receiving with the bride, wore a blue figured silk frock with white accessories. Both wore shoulder corsages.

The bride's table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake flanked by tall white tapered gladioli. Mr. Edworthy proposed the bridal toast.

For travelling, the bride donned a dressmaker suit, all purposes with matching hat. A corsage of roses and topcoat of golden beige completed her going-away ensemble. Later, Mr. and Mrs. Creasy will take up residence in the Hardisty district.

Out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mrs. Vale of Windsor, Ont., aunt of the bridegroom; John Almost of Woodstock, Ont., uncle of the bride; Byron Almost of Montreal, brother of the bride; Mrs. C. Love and daughter, Mrs. Edythe Loudfoot, of Edmonton.

Miss Betty Thomson of Edmonton is a visitor in Ottawa, guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. D.W. Thomson.

Col. Belcher joined the NW-12 at its formation in Ottawa in September 1913 and came west to Fort Garry, which was a Hudson's Bay Company trading post, where he spent the winter. In the spring the group there was joined by another detachment, which started overland to the west, where they spent the next winter at Fort Macleod and a barracks was built.

IN 1876 Col. Belcher came to Fort Saskatchewan and in 1880 he married Miss McLeod in Edmonton, after which they went to Balfour for a year, later returning to the fort. In December 1884 they went to Regina. The couple lived in Regina until 1901 and returned to Edmonton during the summer of that year.

During these years Colonel Belcher served in South Africa with Lord Strathcona and spent two years in the Yukon.

In the summer of 1904 Col. and Mrs. Belcher left for the west and upon his retirement from the NWMP they came to Edmonton to live.

COLONEL BELCHER died in Calgary in February 1919. During the First Great War he commanded and took overseas the 138th Battalion. At the time of his death he was commandant of Sarscoe Camp near Calgary.

In 1944 Mrs. Belcher and all her family went to Calgary for the opening of the new Colonel Belcher military hospital, named after her husband. She has been active in the IODE, being a charter member of Westward Ho! Chapter, an ardent worker in the Presbyterian church, the Canadian Club and the YWCA. She has knitted many articles for servicemen.

Her memory is marvellous and her stories of the early days in the west keep her listeners thrilled.

At her residence at 14712 Stony Plain Road she will be at home to her friends on Wednesday.

Mr. Wrigley for many years was organist at Knox United Church, Calgary and is now organist and choir leader of Edmonton musicians. He renewed friendships with several city musicians while here.

Complimenting Mrs. Frank Jones of Winnipeg, formerly of Edmonton, who is visiting in the city, Mrs. R.C. Marshall entertained at luncheon Monday and Mrs. Bert Wright was a luncheon hostess. Tuesday, on Wednesday evening, Mrs. Harold D. White will entertain at a supper party at her home, and Friday, Mrs. Conrad G. Gieggle will be a luncheon hostess.

Mrs. and Mrs. Thomas Corbett of Edmonton announce the engagement of their only daughter, Marjorie Alice, to Dean R. Martin, son of Mr. and Mrs. Will Martin of Long Beach, Calif. The wedding will take place at Long Beach, Sept. 7.

City's Consumption Of Power High

Electrical energy generated for city requirements only for the week ending August 4, 1946, totalled 2,143,300 KWH or 183,800 KWH over the corresponding week of last year. The figures apply to electric light, street railway and water pumping plant.

TOTAL CONSUMED by these departments from Jan. 1 to Aug. 4 was 70,100,000, an increase of 3,357,500 or five percent over the amount used for the period last year.

Total generated for all purposes over the period 1941-1946, a decrease of 14,535,800 KWH from that of 1945.

Miss Lauerman Becomes Bride

St. Joseph's Cathedral was the scene of a wedding, Monday at 10 a.m., when Miss Elizabeth Mary (Betty) Lauerman, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Lauerman of Edmonton, became the bride of Thomas Michael Collins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Collins of Kinmont, Ont. The Rev. Mons. W. Gietter officiated.

Imelda Olsen played the wedding music and Miss Noreen Brinstow sang Ave Maria during the signing of the register.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, the bride wore a gown of Swiss marquisette made in period style with a flared skirt terminating in a slight train. The fitted bodice featured a low sweetheart neckline and short puffed sleeves which were complemented with long white marquisette mittens. Her floor-length veil was held in place by roses and she carried a bouquet of white gladioli and pink roses. Her only jewelry was a diamond locket, which belonged to the bride's mother.

MISS MARION ESCH and Miss Rosalie Tatham were bridesmaids. They wore gowns of embroidered white marquisette with matching mittens and coronets of flowers in their hair. Each carried a colonial bouquet of summer blossoms.

George Barrie was best man and ushers were Joseph Lauerman and Martin Lauerman, brothers of the bride.

A reception to 100 guests was held in the drawing room of the Macdonald hotel, where the bride's table was decorated with pink and white sweetpeas and centered with a tiered wedding cake, flanked by slender white taper.

Mrs. LAUERMAN, mother of the bride, wore a grey crepe afternoon frock, with black hat and a corsage of pink roses. Mrs. A. Dussault, aunt of the bride, chose a black afternoon frock with matching accessories and a corsage of gardenias.

The couple is spending a honeymoon at Kinmont and later will reside in Edmonton.

THE BRIDE wore a floor-length gown of coral pink satin and carried a bouquet of gladioli.

The bridesmaid, Miss Violet Bascombe, sister of the bridegroom, wore a white sheer floor-length gown and carried a bouquet of roses.

David Hagen, brother of the bride was best man.

AFTER THE CEREMONY the party motored to the farm home of Mr. and Mrs. John Bascombe, where a supper was served to 50 guests. A three-tier wedding cake made by the bride's mother centered the bride's table.

The couple left to visit friends in Red Deer for a week, after which they will take up residence in Wetaskiwin.

Why Grow Old?

By JOSEPHINE LOWMAN

If WOMEN COULD rub Aladdin's lamp and make a wish, a large percentage of them would ask for a slim waistline, and wisely so! No other figure attribute gives quite the same impression of figure charm. I have always noticed this when measuring pupils. If a woman has a truly slim waist she can carry quite a lot of weight on the hips and still look willowy.

The waist is one of the most likely meeting places for fatty deposits and it is therefore fortunate that it is one of the easiest spots to reduce. The condition of the abdominal muscles also affects the waist. Posture makes a big difference. You can decrease your waistline an inch or more simply by improving your posture.

HOWEVER, SPECIAL exercise is the Aladdin's lamp for slimming the waist. Here are a couple of rubs to make your wish come true.

Stand tall with your feet a comfortable distance apart, arms raised overhead. Bend your trunk and touch your left foot with your fingers. If you cannot do this go down as far as you can in that direction. Now raise the trunk, arms again overhead. As you do so twist the trunk to the right, looking back over your shoulder. This time bend the trunk and touch right finger to the left and try to touch your right hand to the floor. Raise trunk, continue, alternating left and right. Remember that the twist and stretch are important.

2. STAND TALL WITH feet apart and arms raised sideways shoulder height. Bend your trunk to the left and try to touch your left hand to the floor. Raise trunk, keeping arms in the same position to the body. This time bend trunk to the right and try to touch your right hand to the floor. Raise trunk, continue, alternating left and right.

If you wish to have my tested exercises which will take inches from your waistline in a few weeks' time, send a stamped, self-addressed envelope with your request for leaflet No. 6. Don't Go To Waist!" to Josephine Lowman in care of The Edmonton Bulletin.

GANDHI'S FIRST NAME IS NOT MAHATMA

The first name of Gandhi, famous Hindu nationalist leader, is not Mahatma, as many suppose; it is Mohandas Karamchand. After he was educated in London he went to South Africa, where he distinguished himself as a defender of the rights of the Indian settlers. It was there that he developed his theory of "resistance without violence," which won his fight. Then he returned to his native India to organize a "non-violence movement" and to use soul-force or non-cooperation as his chief tool. The common people were so much impressed with his earnestness and idealism that they invested him with the title of "Mahatma," which means "Great Soul." This title had been used till his erroneous belief in it to be.

ray containing the midnight lunch of coffee and sandwiches came toward them followed by a tall young intern who was demanding to carry it. However, Miss, the middle-aged nurse who mothered the entire staff from the chief, herself, to the newest probationer, refused to listen.

"RUN along, Doctor," she advised, none too cordially. "Go peddle your papers. These girls don't want you hanging around while they eat and don't you dare match any of their hands either. You men are all alike—pigs—never filled 'up.' Scram! Scram!"

"But the patient's man's mother," he protested, "is waiting in the corridor." "The patient's man's mother," he protested, "is waiting in the corridor." "The patient's man's mother," he protested, "is waiting in the corridor."

"That's the girl of the dark complexion," he said. "Not more than usual, I suppose," Sally replied. "But I'm certain she's leaving in the morning. It isn't often I'm eager to see the last of a patient; but Mrs. Tilden has been in the hospital for three solid weeks. There have been times when I longed to inform her what she needed was a maid, not a nurse. Honestly, Doctor, that woman had anything the matter with her and to think she doted on me much needed space here and the services of two of our overworked nurses!"

"Sure, but she's on the Board," he said. "Remember, Sister, I've seen the death of her. That's why you got the job she needed and all that." It was said quite without malice and Sally merely grinned and sighed again.

The elevator whirled to a stop and Miss Hamilton, laden with a
